

Promoting Sustainable Use of Natural Resources through Restoring and Conserving Socio-Ecological Production Landscapes in Cambodia

By
Institute of Environment Rehabilitation and Conservation, Japan
(ERECON)

Institute of Environment Rehabilitation and Conservation, Japan (ERECON)

Headquarters
(Tokyo, Japan)

Cambodia Branch (Phnom Penh, Cambodia)

Southeast Asia Office
(Pathum Thani, Thailand)

Aims

ERECON shall aim to contribute to sustainable use of natural resources in Asian countries.

Therefore, the organization shall pursue the environment rehabilitation, conservation and illuminating campaign for the harmony between the agricultural and urban development and the natural environment.

Programs

ERECON shall conduct following non-profit programs.

1. Programs on environment rehabilitation and conservation in Asian countries
2. Programs on sustainable use of natural resources in Asian countries
3. Programs on illuminating campaign of environment in Asian countries

ERECON Activity

❖ Supporting the activities for sustainable agriculture and environment

ERECON Activity

❖ Supporting the activities for food, agriculture and environment education through organic farming

Coming ERECON Activity

Promoting Sustainable Use of Natural Resources through Restoring and Conserving Socio-Ecological Production Landscapes in Cambodia

- Objectives:
- To enhance sustainable use of natural resources
 - To create harmony between people and nature
 - To increase local awareness on environmental conservation with providing incentives to local people in Cambodia

Contents:

A) Research on the effective approach for the sustainable use of natural resources by local peoples

B) Promotion on socio-ecological production landscapes through sustainable use of natural resources

C) Reforestation in socio-ecological production landscapes for sustainable use of natural resources

D) Promotion of Eri-culture in socio-ecological production landscapes for sustainable use of natural resources

Thank you for your attentions!!

