

HERITAGE LIVELIHOODS– Looking back to see ahead:

Engaging Communities in World Heritage Management in Cambodia

The First International Partnership for Satoyama Initiative
(IPSI) Global Conference

10-12 March 2011, Aichi, Nagoya, JAPAN

LIVE & LEARN
Environmental Education

SATOYAMA INITIATIVE

Presentation by: Jady Smith – LLEE Program Director Asia

LIVE & LEARN
Environmental Education

Live & Learn Environmental Education's objective is to reduce poverty & foster greater understanding and action towards a sustainable future.

Khmer

Empire

Angkorian - Heritage Landscape

© Copyright Monash University

Angkorian - Heritage Landscape

Angkorian - Heritage Landscape

Angkorian - Heritage Landscape

Angkorian - Heritage Landscape

Heritage Livelihoods:
are livelihood activities that have positive links to cultural and natural heritage, and can serve to reduce poverty and enhance the World Heritage Stature of the site.

Heritage Livelihoods

Heritage
Livelihoods

Cultural Heritage

Natural Heritage

Many World Heritage Sites are Historical Socio-Ecological Production Landscapes with potential for Satoyama actions!

Thank You!